

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS – READ CAREFULLY: This Label License Agreement (“Agreement”) is the legal agreement between you (hereinafter “Licensee”) and American Type Culture Collection (“ATCC”), for the use of products containing or developed with genome editing technology, including but not limited to CRISPR, (“Products”), which Products are provided to you by ATCC under a license from The Broad Institute, Inc. (“Broad”). If your entity has previously executed a blanket ATCC MTA, this Agreement is incorporated into and made a part of that MTA. For all others, this Agreement is incorporated into and made a part of the MTA posted on the ATCC website. Wherever the terms of the Agreement and the MTA conflict, this Agreement shall control.

ATCC hereby grants to Licensee the non-transferable right to use Product(s) purchased from ATCC and any Related Material including, without limitation, to perform Licensed Processes and create products which may be Products therefrom solely for research conducted by such Licensee in accordance with all of the following requirements.

Licensee (i) shall not sell or otherwise transfer Products (including without limitation any material that contains a Product in whole or part) or any Related Material to any other person or entity, or use Products or any Related Material to perform services for the benefit of any other person or entity, (ii) shall use only the purchased amount of the Products and components of the Products, and shall use any Related Material, only for its internal research within the Field and not for any Commercial Purposes, (iii) shall use Products and any Related Material in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, including without limitation applicable human health and animal welfare laws and regulations, (iv) shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless MIT, Harvard and Broad and their current and former trustees, directors, officers, faculty, affiliated investigators, students, employees, and agents and their respective successors, heirs and assigns (the “Indemnitees”), against any liability, damage, loss, or expense (including without limitation reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses) incurred by or imposed upon any of the Indemnitees in connection with any claims, suits, investigations, actions, demands or judgments arising out of or related to the exercise of any rights granted to Licensee under the Agreement or any breach of the Agreement by such Licensee and (v) the Product and its use may be the subject of one or more issued patents and/or pending patent applications owned by Broad, MIT and Harvard in addition to the Patent Rights and the purchase of the Product does not convey a license under any claims in the foregoing patents or patent applications directed to the Product for any purposes or use, production or commercialization thereof in addition to the Patent Rights.

Definitions used in this Agreement.

“Commercial Purposes” means (a) the practice, performance or provision of any method, process or service, or (b) the manufacture, sale, use, distribution, disposition or importing of any product, in each case (a) or (b) for consideration, e.g., a fee, or on any other commercial basis.

“Field” means use as a research tool for research purposes including, without limitation, the identification, screening, characterization and/or evaluation of compounds whether for toxicology, proficiency, performance or otherwise; provided, however, the Field shall expressly exclude (a) any clinical use, including, without limitation, diagnostic and prognostic use, (b) any human germline modification, including modifying the DNA of human embryos or human reproductive cells, (c) any in vivo veterinary or livestock use, or (d) the manufacture, distribution, importation, exportation, transportation, sale, offer for sale, marketing, promotion or other exploitation or use of, or as, a testing service, therapeutic or diagnostic for humans or animals.

“Licensed Process” means any process, method or service, performed, (a) the performance, sale or offer for sale of which process, method or service, or part thereof, would infringe (without the license granted under this Agreement) or is claimed by at least one claim of the Patent Rights.

“Patent Rights” are those rights claimed in one or more issued patents related to CRISPR technology obtained by the Broad Institute and under license by ATCC.

“Related Material” means any progeny, modification or derivative of a Product.
